Requests should be made online via NC State's credentialing site. Any questions can be sent to Annabelle Myers, Associate Athletics Director for Communications (amyers@ncsu.edu or 919.819.8302).

Player interviews will be conducted after practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays at the Close-King Indoor Practice Facility or over the phone. There will be no interviews after Wednesdays on game weeks.

HEAD COACH DAVE DOEREN

One Pack. One Goal

That simple statement was introduced by Dave Doeren when he took over the Wolfpack football program in 2012. Eleven years later, that statement has become a culture.

Wolfpack Football under Doeren is know for tough, hard-working players who play for a common goal - not for individual, but for the collective.

That culture has paid off with success on the field. Doeren has led the Wolfpack to 72 victories – the second-highest total in school history.

He enters the 2023 campaign with the second-longest tenure in the ACC and the seventh-longest in the Power 5 conferences. He has guided NC State to at least eight wins in five of the last six seasons, with three nine-win campaigns in that time.

The Wolfpack ranks third in the ACC in conference wins since 2018 and eight of his 10 Wolfpack squads have qualified for postseason bowls - the most of any coach in program history.

Between 2017-22, 20 of his players have been drafted by the NFL - including an ACC-best seven in 2017 - the sixth-highest total nationally. Three of his players have gone on to be first-round picks, including OT Ikem Ekwonu in 2022, C Garrett Bradbury in 2019 and DE Bradley Chubb in 2018.

The Wolfpack has boasted 56 Academic All-ACC performers under his guidance - including a program-high 13 in 2022 - and in 2018 had a player named to the prestigious NFF National Scholar-Athlete Team.

Three of his players have won four national awards. Bradley Chubb won the Nagurski Trophy and the Hendricks Award in 2017, Garrett Bradbury was the recipient of the 2019 Rimington Trophy and last season, Christopher Dunn won the Lou Groza Award.

Over the 2020, '21 and '22 seasons, the Wolfpack won 16 straight home games, tying as the longest home winning streak in school history. The 2021 squad became the first since 1986 (35 years!) to go undefeated at home (and that squad did post one tie) and one of just six teams in school history to post an unblemished record at Carter-Finley Stadium.

The 2022 Wolfpack team was the first since 1980 not to give up more than 30 points in a game all season and the Wolfpack was the only Power 5 team to accomplish that feat in 2022.

In 2022, injuries forced the Wolfpack to start four different players at the quarterback spot, with each of the four earning a victory.

Wolfpack fans stormed the field twice in 2021, as Doeren's Pack knocked off ninth-ranked Clemson in double overtime and then scored 13 points in 95 seconds to knock off visiting UNC and close out the regular season.

The Pack was poised for its 10th win of the season in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl before a game-day cancellation by UCLA shocked the nation. Still, NC State's final rankings (18th in CFP, 20th in AP) were the program's highest since 2002.

In 2021, with five new coaches on staff (not to mention a global pandemic to contend with), the Wolfpack made one of the most inpressive turnarounds in college football, posting an 8-4 record and earning the sixth bowl bid of his Wolfpack tenure. Doeren led his resilient squad to seven ACC victories - a new school record.

That successful campaign followed a season that saw the Wolfpack decimated by injuries with seven players (including five starters) lost for the season. Because of injuries, a Power 5 conference-leading 45 players started games in 2019 and the Pack played the nation's second-highest total of freshmen.

With nine victories, the 2018 Wolfpack was one of just six teams in the 126-year history of NC State football to post nine or more regular season wins. It marked the first time since 1991-92 that NC State had posted back-to-back nine-win seasons and was only the third time in school history that had been accomplished.

Doeren's teams qualified for five consecutive bowl games (2014-18) - the second-longest bowl streak in school history - and he is only the second coach in school history to take teams to five straight postseason bowls.

The Wolfpack boasted an ACC-best six first-team all-conference performers in 2018 and became the first team in school history to place two wide receivers on the first team.

His 2017 squad posted nine wins for the season, including a 6-2 mark in the ACC - the most in 23 years. The squad finished the year with a resounding win in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

In 2016, while facing a daunting schedule, his squad won three of its last four games, including a win at rival UNC and an Independence Bowl victory over SEC opponent Vanderbilt. Four of the squad's losses in 2016, including two to ranked teams, were by seven points of less.

In 2015, Doeren took one of the nation's youngest teams and went to battle against three teams that ended the regular season ranked in the top 10. NC State won four road games in 2015, more than any Wolfpack squad since 2002. No other State team has turned in more road victories since 1957. The team posted numbers on offense and special teams that were among the top marks in school history.

In 2014, his second year as the head coach at NC State, his team was the second-most improved in the Power 5 conferences. The Wolfpack more than doubled its win total from the previous season, earned a bowl victory and posted its highest team GPA in program history.

The 2014 Wolfpack squad was only the second in school history to score 40 or more points in five regular season games and posted its best rushing average since 1992. Despite the tough league schedule in 2015, the team posted four 40+ point games and an almost identical rushing output.

He came to NC State after leading the program at Northern Illinois to its most successful two years in program history. His first Husky squad won the school's first Mid-American Conference Championship since 1983 and tied the school record with 11 wins. His second version repeated as league champions and set a new school record by posting 12 victories for the season and earned a trip to the Orange Bowl - the first BCS berth ever for a MAC school. Doeren was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards following the 2012 campaign.

Under Doeren's leadership, NIU boasted the nation's longest conference winning streak with 17 straight wins versus MAC opponents. The Huskies never lost a home game during his tenure in DeKalb, winning a dozen home contests in his two seasons to extend the nation's longest home winning streak to 21 games.

Prior to his stint in DeKalb, Doeren spent five seasons in the Big Ten at Wisconsin, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. During Doeren's time in Madison, the Badgers posted a 49-15 overall mark and played in the Champs Sports Bowl twice, the Outback Bowl, the Capital One Bowl and the Rose Bowl.

For his first two seasons in Madison, he served as co-defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/linebackers coach and in 2008, was named the primary defensive coordinator.

Doeren arrived at Wisconsin after four seasons (2002-05) at the University of Kansas, where he served as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for three seasons before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator under head coach Mark Mangino.

During Doeren's time at Kansas, the Jayhawks ended a seven-year bowl drought, earning bids to the 2003 Tangerine Bowl and the 2005 Ft. Worth Bowl. The opponent in that first bowl appearance was a Philip Rivers-led NC State team.

In 2000 and 2001, Doeren coached the secondary at NCAA Division I-AA (now Football Championship Subdivision) powerhouse Montana, also serving as the Grizzlies' recruiting coordinator for one year. Montana advanced to the I-AA national championship game in 2000, losing by two points, but returned to win the national title the following season. The Grizzlies posted a 28-3 record and won two Big Sky Conference championships in his two years with the program and he coached five All-Americans, four All-Big Sky performers and two league defensive MVPs.

Doeren grew up right outside of Kansas City, where he watched his grandfather, Thomas Glennon, coach high school basketball and track. He loved the respect his grandfather commanded from his players, even after he retired from coaching.

When he left for college at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, his goals were to play football, earn a pre-med degree, go to med school and become an orthopedic doctor. He accomplished the first two.

He lettered at tight end for the Bulldogs, catching 19 catches for 237 yards for his career. He majored in pre-medical biology, earning Academic All-America honors as a senior. He took the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT). His plans for the future changed, however, during the summer between his junior and senior years when his former coach at Bishop Miege High School asked him to lead seven-on-seven drills.

From that moment on, he decided he wanted to be a coach. He pursued that goal with a relentlessness that never wavered. Instead of heading to med school, he landed his first coaching job in 1994, right there in Kansas at Shawnee Mission Northwest High School. His collegiate coaching career began just a year later, when he was named an assistant coach at Drake, leading the linebackers from 1995-97 before adding defensive coordinator chores in 1997. He also earned his master's degree from Drake in educational leadership.

Doeren got his first taste of a bowl experience as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Southern California. During his stint with the Trojans, he began work on his Ph.D.

Doeren met his wife Sara while he was coaching at Drake and she was a nursing student. The couple has three sons: Jacob (23), Luke (20) and Connor (16).

DR. RANDY WOODSON
Chancellor

Dr. Randy Woodson became North Carolina State University's 14th chancellor in April 2010. Woodson leads the largest university in North Carolina, with nearly 38,000 students and a $2 billion budget. Under his leadership, the university created, implemented and completed "The Pathway to the Future," a strategic plan that elevated NC State's recognition among the nation's top public research universities. In 2021, NC State created the "Wolfpack 2030: Powering the Extraordinary" strategic plan to build on this momentum and carry the university even further.

NC State has become a lead university for two National Science Foundation Engineering Research Centers and one Manufacturing USA institute (and a partner in six others). The university has also expanded to more than 65 industry and government partnerships on its nationally recognized Centennial Campus. NC State has also garnered national and international recognition for its faculty and student scholarship.

NC State launched and completed the Think and Do the Extraordinary Campaign, which raised $2.1 billion for scholarships, research, programs and facilities, propelling the university to even greater heights.

A nationally recognized scholar and academic leader, Chancellor Woodson came to NC State having most recently served as provost and executive vice chancellor for academic affairs at Purdue University. An internationally renowned plant molecular biologist specializing in reproductive processes in agricultural crops, he earned his undergraduate degree in horticulture from the University of Arkansas and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in plant physiology from Cornell University.

Under Woodson's leadership, NC State has become a preeminent research enterprise known for solving real-world challenges — a true Think and Do university. His strategic vision has enabled the university to advance in areas of student success, innovative research and collaborative partnerships. This has resulted in students ready to solve real-world challenges, public-private partnerships that transform ideas into solutions, and a creative, engaging center of learning and exploration for all.

True to its land-grant heritage, NC State creates economic, societal and intellectual prosperity for the people of North Carolina and the country — with increasing momentum under Woodson's direction.

BOO CORRIGAN
Director of Athletics

Since Boo Corrigan began his tenure as NC State's Director of Athletics in April of 2019, the Wolfpack has enjoyed unprecedented success. And although the Wolfpack has excelled competitively and academically under his veteran leadership, it is his mission to enhance the entire student-athlete experience that he is most proud of.

Corrigan's goal is to constantly improve the day-to-day experience of all 550+ Wolfpack student-athletes under his leadership. During his tenure, numerous sports have received facility upgrades and renovations, but his biggest investment will always be in people. He accomplished this with increased staffing and support services, but more importantly with a door that is always open to staff, coaches and athletes. In fact, every athlete at NC State is provided with his personal cell number.

That investment has paid off in competitive results. For the first time in school history, the Wolfpack has posted back-to-back top 20 finishes in the Learfield Directors' Cup, which measures all-sport success. NC State's No. 19 ranking following the 2022-23 athletic year marked the first time the Pack has finished in the top 25 in three consecutive years and was the third-highest final ranking in school history.

Since he arrived in Raleigh after spending eight years as Director of Athletics at West Point, NC State has won 15 ACC team championships – three more than any other league school during that time frame. Women's cross country has brought home back-to-back national titles, with its 2021 championship marking the first NCAA title ever by a Wolfpack women's team and the school's first national team title in any sport since 1983.

In 2022-23, the Wolfpack won a combined total of 37 individual and team titles on the conference and national levels. Four NC State teams won ACC titles in 2022-23 (cross country, men's swimming, wrestling and women's tennis), while six teams finished in the top 10 nationally. NC State was one of just eight Division I schools to advance to the postseason in all of its "Big Four" sports: football, men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball.

Seven different Wolfpack student-athletes brought home national titles in six different events, and the Pack also collected 26 individual ACC titles in 2022-23.

NC State registered a 993 in the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR), the highest mark in school history. Ten of the Wolfpack's 21 teams earned a perfect 1000, while 19 of the 21 teams boasted marks above the national average for their sport.

Recent improvements to the Wolfpack's facilities include new nutrition centers in Weisiger-Brown and in the Murphy Center; renovations to the Case Academic Center and the football weight room; locker room renovations for women's track and field/cross country, and wrestling; new field surfaces at Dail Soccer Stadium and Doak Park; and, of course, the new videoboard and sound system at Carter-Finley Stadium, which will be one of the largest in the nation.

In the works are other enhancements that include the women's basketball locker room remodel and the renovation of the Dail Center's player lounge for men's basketball, as well as ongoing improvements to baseball's home, Doak Park.

Under Corrigan's leadership, annual giving increased 13 percent year-over-year this past academic year, with nearly 1,000 new donors joining the Wolfpack Club.

In 2021-22, NC State recorded its second-highest finish ever in the Directors' Cup with a No. 17 mark. Four Wolfpack teams boasted top-five national rankings, while 11 teams finished in the top 25 of their sports' national rankings. Wolfpack teams also brought four ACC titles home to Raleigh in 2021-22 (women's cross country, wrestling, women's basketball and men's swimming and diving).

In recognition for those successes, Corrigan was named a Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year for 2022. It marked the second time in six years that Corrigan was honored, as he was named a 2017 Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics while he was the leader at Army.

In 2020-21, five programs finished in the top four in the nation in their respective polls, helping the Wolfpack to a No. 23 finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup, which was then the second-highest finish in school history.

Corrigan helped NC State navigate the financial challenges of COVID-19 during the 2020-21 campaign. In a year that NC State entered with the potential for a $22.8 million gap, Corrigan helped bring Athletics to a balanced budget and did so without the elimination of any positions.

In January of 2021, Corrigan was selected as a member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, beginning a three-year term. He served as chairman of that prestigious group in 2022 and will do so again in 2023.

In his first full year with the Pack, NC State won a league-high four ACC Championships and had a program-best 332 Academic All-ACC selections. His first year was marked by progress in establishing the NC State Athletics Development Plan to address the future of athletics facilities, while also establishing notable partnerships, such as SAS analytics and TeamWorks.

Prior to his time in Raleigh, Corrigan presided over one of the most successful eras in Army's history, setting milestones and records in competition and in the classroom. He oversaw a program that claimed 20 Patriot League regular-season or tournament championships and sent 14 teams to their respective NCAA postseason competitions. A total of 80 cadets earned a major award from their conference during his tenure.

Corrigan oversaw an unprecedented increase in athletic fundraising during his time at West Point. With his guidance, the Army A Club experienced a 30 percent increase in membership while increasing the total money raised annually by 200 percent from $2.5 million to approximately $7.5 million. Corrigan also led significant growth of the Athletic Department's endowments, establishing 16 new funds, more than doubling the number of endowments and growing the department's total endowment funds by more than $18 million in his tenure. In addition, Corrigan raised more than $35 million in support of new and renovated facilities.

Throughout his career, Corrigan has placed a consistent emphasis on student-athlete wellness, prioritizing mental health and social media training.

Corrigan is no stranger to the Atlantic Coast Conference. Before his time at Army, Corrigan worked for three years in the athletic department at Duke, serving as senior associate athletic director for external affairs. He also served as assistant director of marketing at Florida State University from 1992 to 1996.

Corrigan also served five years as associate athletic director for marketing at the University of Notre Dame and three years as associate athletic director for marketing at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Corrigan spent much of his youth in Charlottesville while his father, the late Gene Corrigan, served as Virginia's athletic director from 1971 to 1981. Gene Corrigan was later athletics director at Notre Dame and commissioner of the ACC.

Corrigan is married to the former Kristen Aceto, who played field hockey and lacrosse at the University of Virginia and also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple has three children – Finley (22), Tre (20) and Brian (19).

Corrigan received his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Notre Dame in 1990 and earned a master's degree in education from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2013.

As a finalist, Finley received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the class and was honored at the 61st NFF Annual Awards Dinner in New York City.
